ADA vs. Reality

1 in 4

American adults have a disability

85%

Of American adults affected by mobility challenges are NOT satisfied with the effectiveness of the ADA

$21 billion

In aggregate discretionary income from Americans with disabilities

What's Wrong?

1. The ADA has a failing enforcement system, loopholes, and missing guidelines.
2. Visitors with disabilities are often ignored or mistreated by employees.
3. There is no efficient way to know customer service of a location before visiting.

Growing & Relevant Need for Access

55% growth in Americans 65+ in 40 years
(40% have at least 1 disability)

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) is an increasing emphasis in the US right now

Only 4% of organizations incorporate disability inclusion into their DEI plans

Travel Apps Overview

- Many travel apps that are well intended to help those with disabilities
- Information on accessible parking, restrooms, public transit, establishments, etc.
- While these can be great and helpful in some cases, are they reliable?
- As with lots in the realm of access, “It depends”
 - How is data generated?
 - When was it updated?
 - Accessibility of digital platform?

16

Travel Apps- Our Take

- These can often be filled with misinformation
- Accessibility has different meanings for different people- vague
- Google is making strides- as of 2020, Google Maps had information for 15 million places world-wide
 - With resources at their disposal, we believe they will only continue to improve the amount and accuracy of accessibility information – becoming a leader

Disability Inclusion Tips

- 1. Do not touch a person, or an extension of that person, without permission
- 2. Ask before automatically going to help
- 3. Do not call a person brave or an inspiration just because they have a disability
- 4. Address the person with a disability first if they are the one communicating with you

18

Disability Inclusion Tips

- 5. Avoid talking or asking about a person's disability unless it is relevant to the task at hand
- 6. Do not speak to a person with a disability with a different tone, volume, or style. The person will ask you to speak louder if necessary.
- 7. Greet everyone and proactively offer help to everyone in a general way

Disability Inclusion Tips

8. Questions you can ask to determine if an animal is a service animal: 1) Is the animal required because of a disability?; and 2) What work or task has the animal been trained to perform?
9. When helping guests/visitors online, via phone call, or in-person; ask about accommodations (“Do you have any preferences or need any accommodations that we should know about while looking more into this?”)
10. Do walkthroughs proactively to ensure your environment is as accessible as possible
